This is accomplished through: sensitivity, consistency, firmness, fairness and follow through. We strive to maintain a loving and positive atmosphere and reinforce the structured boundaries required. Any form of discipline involves specific learning processes.

Below are examples of behavior and resulting corrective actions. These lists are not meant to be exhaustive:

Minor behavioral incidents:

BEHAVIOR	Yelling inside, picking on others or cheating
CORRECTIVE ACTION	2 min. to 5 min. of silent time out and debrief, sit out of activity or have a privilege denied

Major behavioral incidents:

BEHAVIOR	Talking back to staff, not listening to staff, fighting/aggressive behavior, swearing, damaging property or running away from staff
CORRECTIVE ACTION	A parent conference will be necessary for all major behavioral incidents. This meeting will consist of a discussion of the child’s behavior, outlining a plan of action to eliminate the behavior, and a discussion of the consequence for that day’s behavior and for if the behavior should persist. All of this will be documented on our Parent Conference Record (PCR) and signed by the site director, the parent and the child. The PCR will then be filed in the camper’s file for future reference. Any unusual incidents will be reported to each state’s licensing agency when required.

Consequences for both minor and major behavioral incidents are at the discretion of the site director. Except in the case of aggressive behavior towards others where the Pacific Camps’ policy is suspension with a parent conference. The duration of the suspension is up to the discretion of the site director.

- NO CALL- If your child is scheduled for transportation by Pacific Camps but was transported by someone else without notifying the Pacific Camps Front Desk, there will be a charge. Locating a child who did not show for scheduled transportation takes several staff members and their time.)
- 2ND TRIP- If your child misses a scheduled pick up for any reason and we must return to the school to pick them up, there will be a charge. Please encourage your child to be at the designated pickup area on time. (Second trips take time and may pull a driver away from other scheduled responsibilities.)

CAREGIVER BACKGROUND CHECK INFORMATION

The law requires that the Community Care Licensing Division check the criminal background of all adults who apply for a license to operate a community care facility. We also check the criminal background of all adults who want to work, reside in or have contact with clients being cared for in a community care facility.

What is a background check?

As part of the background check process you must be fingerprinted and tell whether you have ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. The Department of Justice and the FBI will check your fingerprints against their criminal record information. If you will have contact with children, your name will be checked against the Child Abuse Central Index registry. This is a listing of people who have been reported for suspected child abuse. If you have not been convicted of a crime and have no child abuse history, you will be given a "clearance."

What if I have a criminal conviction?

If you were ever convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, even if it happened a long time ago, you cannot own, live or work (including some volunteers) in a facility unless we give you an "exemption." If the Department of Justice notifies us that you were convicted of a crime, we will notify the facility operator that an exemption is needed. If you were convicted of a serious crime or if you are on supervised probation after being convicted of a crime, you probably won't be given an exemption. You do not qualify for a criminal record exemption if you have ever been convicted of a serious crime such as robbery, sexual battery, child abuse, elder or dependent adult abuse, rape, first degree burglary, arson, or kidnapping. These kinds of crimes are nonexemptible and if you were convicted of one of them, by law you will never be allowed in a facility.

How do I get a criminal record exemption?

As part of the request for an exemption, the facility operator or you must send us convincing proof that you are of good character in spite of your conviction. We will review any information you submit as well as the number and type of crimes committed, how long ago the crime(s) happened, what kind of work you will be doing and whether you will be working with children, adults, or the elderly. If we find that you were not truthful in the information you submitted for your exemption, we will deny your exemption request. In most cases, if you are currently on supervised probation or on parole you will not be granted an exemption. If your exemption is denied, and you are married to or living with someone who is applying for a license and care will be provided in your home, his or her application will be denied because everyone who lives in the home must have a clearance or exemption. If a criminal record exemption is granted to you and you later move, or want to work in a different facility, your exemption will be re-evaluated based on your new role and our current laws, regulations, and policies. If you are arrested or convicted after an exemption is granted to you, your exemption may be cancelled. If you are married to or living with someone who is licensed, and care is provided in your home, the facility license may be suspended or revoked. You are strongly encouraged to read the licensing criminal record exemption regulations to find out the amount of time that must pass following your conviction, before you can qualify for an exemption. Some convictions require longer periods of time following conviction than others. The regulations and other information can be found on our web site at www.cclcd.ca.gov.

How long does the criminal record exemption process take to complete?

PACIFIC CAMPS PE PROGRAM

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As a part of the Pacific Camps summer program, your child will participate in an educational course funded by a federal grant from the Department of Education designed to help teach them a lifelong healthy lifestyle. The Pacific Camps Define Your Identity PE Program will provide your child the basic tools to achieve a healthy lifestyle through good nutrition and regular physical activity. It will also provide age-appropriate first aid information.

The Define Your Identity PE program will define and promote sound food choices leading to a more balanced diet and weight control as measured by child and/or parent surveys. The program will also encourage your child to be physically active and teach him/her ways to develop and maintain improved levels of physical fitness, improved nutrition habits as measured by Body Mass Index (B.M.I.) calculations, and physical fitness testing. The results of the P.E. program will be measured periodically through the use of pedometers, observation, and surveys to demonstrate an objective outcome of achievement.

Because this program is funded by the Department of Education we are required to assess progress and report the results. In these reports no personal identifiable information will be made available to the D.O.E. as part of the assessment of your child. All data will be “de-identified” and compiled into a larger set of data as part of a regional database of fitness scores. We would appreciate your help in this effort; however, if you would like for your child to be included in this program and its assessment, please fill out and sign below.

Please contact your site director for more information on this program. Thank you.

My child, _____, may participate in the PE
(Child's name)
program and program assessment.

Pacific Camps Policy for Magic Mtn./Hurricane Harbor Park Passes 2011 - 2012

Hello Parents,

This season we will be offering optional Magic Mountain/Hurricane Harbor park field trips. Parents may choose to purchase season passes for their children allowing them to participate in the field trips. These field trips are completely optional, and there will be an on-site activities scheduled for all campers who choose not to participate.

Only campers with season passes will go on the amusement park field trips.

These passes can only be purchased for registered campers who will be attending the magic Mountain/Hurricane Harbor trips.

To ensure the best summer experience for your child, it is necessary for Pacific Camps to hold the passes, to ensure they are not misplaced, and that they are readily available for each trip to the amusement park. If your child needs his or her pass for a non-camp trip to the amusement park, you will be able to check out the pass and will need to check the pass back in as soon as possible to your camp director. If your child's pass is not checked back in, he or she no longer has a season pass when going with Pacific Camps, and a fee may apply. Any coupons or discount books are property of Pacific Camps and will not be distributed to campers or their parents.

In order to purchase a season pass through Pacific Camps, agreement to this policy and payment is required. Please initial the plan that you would like to purchase below.
